Owners of NKC licensed kennels may keep their kennel name as part of a dog's name they have bred. Any name change by the new owner will still have the kennel name listed, for example, the breeder may name the puppy _____of Whippoorwill Kennel.

If the kennel is a registered ARHA kennel and you fully name the puppy, its name can never be changed. If you wish to have the kennel name listed as part of the puppy name only, list only the kennel name or abbreviation on litter application, for example: Whippoorwill 1, Whippoorwill 2 etc.

When registering a litter, you as breeder must state on litter application: Litter from NKC licensed kennel.

The kennel license is valid for as long as requested, and may be renewed as long as desired by kennel operator and approved by NKC. Either party may cancel kennel license at any time, without giving a specific reason.
