

Breed Standards for the American Water Spaniel

General Appearance:	The American Water Spaniel packs a lot of ability into a comparatively small dog.
Head:	Slightly rounded eyes, color harmonizing with coat, Broad skull, stop moderately defined, Long, wide ears.
Tail:	Curved in a rocker fashion, carried near the level of the back.
Color:	Solid, liver, brown or dark chocolate
Size:	Weight: male: 30 – 45 lb; female: 25 – 40 lb Height: 15 – 18"
Coat:	The coat can range from uniform waves to close curls, with a dense undercoat. This provides protection against the weather.
Temperament:	A lover of water. Skilled in retrieving and hunting. Also a fun-loving sensitive dog