

Breed Standard for the Australian Cattle Dog

General Appearance:	The Australian Cattle Dog is of moderate build, enabling it to combine great endurance with bursts of speed and extreme agility necessary in controlling unruly cattle.
Head:	Medium-sized, oval eyes; Broad skull; rather small pricked ears
Tail:	Set low, hanging in slight curve
Color:	Blue or blue-mottled with or without other markings; red speckled.
Size:	Weight: 35 – 45 lb Height: Male: 18 – 20"; Female 17 – 19"
Temperament:	Smart, hardy, independent, stubborn, tenacious, energetic, and untiring.