

Breed Standard for the Australian Terrier

General Appearance:	The Australian Terrier is small, sturdy, and medium boned; it is long in proportion to height.
Head:	Eyes small and oval; head long and strong; ears small, erect, and pointed
Tail:	Set high and carried at twelve or one o'clock, docked leaving just less than one half
Color:	Blue and tan, solid sandy, and solid red
Size:	Weight: 12 – 14lbs; Height 10 – 11"
Temperament:	One of the quieter terriers, this dog is nonetheless a plucky, tough character, ready to go after a rodent when the chance arises.