

Breed Standards for the Black and Tan Coonhound

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| General Appearance: | It is square or slightly longer than tall, with moderate bone. |
| Head: | Well-developed flews; Skin devoid of folds; Almost round eyes; Low-set , long ears hanging in folds |
| Tail: | Carried high, nearly perpendicular to back |
| Color: | Black and tan |
| Size: | Weight: 55-75 lb; Height: male: 25-27"; female: 23-25" |
| Coat: | Its hair is short but dense |
| Gait: | The stride is easy and graceful |
| Temperament: | It is a mellow, amiable, calm and unobtrusive |