

Breed Standards for the Border Terrier

General Appearance:	The Border Terrier is a medium bone, slightly taller than long.
Head:	Muzzle short, darker colored and with a few short whiskers; Eyes medium sized; Head similar to an otter; Small, V-shaped ears, dropping forward;
Tail:	Moderately short, carried gaily when alert
Color:	Red, grizzle and tan, blue and tan, or wheaten
Size:	Weight: Male 13 – 15.5 lb; Female 11.5 – 14 lb Height: 10 – 11"
Temperament:	It is inquisitive, busy, friendly, and biddable. It is very good with children and makes a good companion for people of all ages. It digs, and some bark. Some are talented escape artists.