

Breed Standards for the Bouvier des Flandres

General Appearance:	A compact, short-coupled dog, of square proportion and rugged appearance
Head:	Thick beard, mustache, and eyebrows; Oval eyes; Flat skull; High-set, rough-coated ears; if cropped, triangular
Tail:	Tail docked to two or three vertebrae, carried upright when in motion
Color:	From fawn to black, including salt and pepper, gray and brindle
Gait:	Free, bold and proud
Coat:	Tousled and double, with a fine undercoat and a harsh, dry outer coat
Size:	Weight: 69-90 lb; Height: male: 24.5 – 27.5"; female: 23.5-26."
Temperance:	Steady, stalwart companion that is loyal, devoted fearless and protective