

Breed Standards for the Boxer

General Appearance:	It is square-proportioned with good substance and musculature
Head:	Broad, blunt muzzle; Undershot bite; Shallow wrinkles on forehead when alert; Slightly arched skull; Ears cropped long and tapering
Tail:	Set high, docked and carried upward
Color:	Fawn and brindle, both with or without white flashing and black mask
Size:	Weight: male: 65-80 lb; female: 50 – 65 lb Height: male: 22.5 – 25"; female: 21 – 23.5"
Gait:	Free and ground covering, with proud carriage
Temperament:	Playful, exuberant, inquisitive, attentive, demonstrative, devoted and outgoing