

Breed Standards for the Treeing Cur

- Ears: Down ears preferred
- Eyes: Green, blue and brown acceptable. Brown being preferred
- Teeth: Strong, not over or under shot
- Voice: Open, semi or silent on track with good change at the tree
- Body: In proportion to height and body structure
- Color: Any color variation acceptable
- Height: 18 to 28 inches
- Weight: Over 30 pounds
- Legs: Straight muscular
- Feet: Cat feet preferred
- Tails: Any length
- Characteristics: The Treeing Cur must show strong treeing ability in the hunting area(s) of squirrel, coon, boar, bear or cat. Their hunting ability must prove them to be more than just an average dog. They should hunt with their eyes, nose and ears. They should show combined abilities from parental breeds. Desired traits are: alert, easily trained, good watch dogs and excellent family pets. They should be an all around dog.