

Breed Standards for the Bull Terrier

General Appearance:	A good looking tough character. Strongly built and muscular, longer than it is tall
Head:	Head long, strong and deep, curving from skull to nose; oval outline viewed face on; Eyes small, triangular, deep set, and placed close together; Ears small, erect, close set
Tail:	Short, carried horizontally
Color:	White variety: white, with markings on head permissible; colored variety: any color other than white, or any color with white markings; brindle preferred
Size:	Weight: male: 55- 65 lb; female: 45 – 55 lb Height: 21 – 22"
Gait:	Smooth and easy
Coat:	Short, flat and harsh
Temperament:	Exuberant, comical, playful, assertive, and very mischievous