

Breed Standards for the Field Spaniel

General Appearance:	The black, liver or roan coat is long, flat, glossy, and silky in texture.
Head:	Moderate stop, almond-shaped, medium-sized eyes, distinct occiput, low-set ears, long and wide.
Tail:	Docked tail slanting downward when at rest.
Color:	Black, liver, roan, or any of these with tan points.
Size:	Height is about 18 inches with the weight from 40 – 55 pounds.
Temperament:	Docile, sensitive, and independent.