

Breed Standards for the Giant Schnauzer

General Appearance:	Its body is strong, compact, and nearly square, combining great power with agility.
Head:	Rectangular head, oval deep-set eyes, ears may be cropped or uncropped; when uncropped, ears are V-shaped.
Tail:	Docked to second or third joint, carried high.
Color:	Solid black or pepper and salt.
Size:	Height ranges from 23.5 – 27.5 inches and weighs 70 – 77 pounds.
Temperament:	Versatile, being strong, hardy, intelligent and vigorous.