

Breed Standards for the Gordon Setter

General Appearance:	Sturdily built with plenty of substance and bone.
Head:	Well-defined stop, low-set ears.
Coat:	The shining coat is coal black in color, without rustiness but with chestnut-red markings.
Tail:	Carried near horizontal, tapering.
Size:	Height is 24.5 – 26 inches and weight 56 – 65 pounds.
Gait:	Bold, smooth and effortless, with head carried proudly.
Temperament:	Make lively, enthusiastic companions and need the company of lively people.