

Breed Standards for the Ibizan Hound

General Appearance:	The Ibizan should possess a deer-like elegance and expression, and its movement reflects these qualities.
Nose:	Rosy flesh-colored.
Head:	Long, narrow, cone-shaped head with prominent occiput, little-defined stop, small light eyes.
Ears:	Large pointed ears, held erect when alert.
Tail:	Set low and carried in a sickle, ring or saber position.
Coat:	Can be hard, either short or wire, the latter from one to three inches in length.
Color:	White or red, solid or in any combination.
Temperament:	Gentle, mild-mannered, even-tempered, and loyal, and makes a quiet, trust-worthy house pet.
