

Breed Standards for the Iceland Sheepdog

|                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| General Appearance: | A sturdy, but not a large herding dog.                                      |
| Coat:               | The coat is of medium length, coarse, thick, and standing-off from the body |
| Color:              | Several variations, all with or without workings                            |
| Size:               | Height: 12-16"; Weight: 20 – 30 lb  |
| Temperament:        | A naturally loving dog that can be a very devoted companion.                |