

Breed Standards for the Lakeland Terrier

| | |
|---------------------|--|
| General Appearance: | A rather small dog of short-backed, square proportion with a sturdy, workmanlike build |
| Head: | Head appears rectangular from all angles; Eyes moderately small and oval; Small, V-shaped ears, dropping forward with fold above skull level |
| Tail: | Set high, carried upright with a slight curve forward, docked to about same height as occiput |
| Color: | Solid (blue, black, liver, red or wheaten); or wheaten or golden tan with a saddle of blue, black, liver or grizzle |
| Size: | Weight: about 17 lb Height: male: 14.5"; female: 13.5" |
| Gait: | Smooth and ground covering, with good reach and drive |
| Coat: | Its double coat consists of a soft undercoat and a hard, wiry outer coat |
| Temperament: | Always busy investigating, playing, and if really gets its wish, hunting, running and chasing |