

Breed Standard for the Pomeranian

General Appearance:	The Pomeranian is a small, square proportioned, miniature spitz with a cobby, rounded body.
Head:	Short neck; almond shaped eyes; wedge-shaped head; small, high-set, erect ears.
Tail:	Arched over back and carried flat.
Color:	All colors and patterns allowed
Size:	Weight is 3 – 7 pounds (preferably 4 – 5 pounds). Height is 8 – 11 inches
Temperament:	Bouncy, bold, and busy, the Pomeranian makes the most of every day. It is curious, playful, self-confident (even cocky), and attentive, every ready for a game or adventure.