

Breed Standards for the Sealyham Terrier

General Appearance:	A short-legged terrier, slightly longer than it is tall. Its body is strong, short-coupled, and substantial, allowing for plenty of flexibility
Head:	Medium-sized, oval, deep-set eyes; Long, broad, powerful head; Ears folded level with top of head, rounded tips
Color:	All white, or with lemon, tan, or badger markings
Size:	Weight: male: 23-24 lb; female: 18-22 lb Height: approx. 10.5"
Coat:	Its weather-resistant coat consists of a soft, dense undercoat and a hard, wiry outer coat.
Temperament:	The Sealyham Terrier is ready for action, always happy to investigate, dig or give chase.