

Breed Standards for the Welsh Corgi-Cardigan

General Appearance:	A low-set dog, approximately 1.8 times longer than it is tall, with moderately heavy bone.
Head:	Medium to large eyes; Moderately flat skull; Large ears, slightly rounded at tip
Tail:	Tail set and carried fairly low, not curled
Color:	All shades of red, sable, and brindle; also blue merle or black, both with or without tan or brindle points; white flashings common
Size:	Weight: male: 30-38 lb; female: 25-34 lb Height: 10.5 – 12.5
Gait:	Its gait is free, smooth, effortless and ground covering
Coat:	Its double coat consists of a soft thick undercoat and slightly harsh outer coat of medium length.
Temperament:	Fun-loving and high spirited, yet easygoing.